

Editorial Policy

The Asian Journal of Tourism and Hospitality Research (AJTHR) is an international refereed journal dedicated to the advancement of knowledge frontiers and improvement of practice in tourism and hospitality management. The journal publishes full-length articles, research notes, and case studies from an interdisciplinary and cross-cultural perspective. Articles submitted by both academic and practitioners are reviewed anonymously by at least two members of the international editorial board.

It is published biannually in March and September by Philippine E-journals at <http://ejournals.ph>. All articles are published in English.
