Congratulations! It is our pleasure to inform you that your abstract has been accepted as a finalist for the John R. Cameron and John R. Cunningham YOUNG INVESTIGATOR SYMPOSIUM for the 2020 Joint AAPM|COMP Meeting from July 12 - 16. The meeting will be presented in a fully virtual environment in the Eastern Time Zone.

There were 396 submissions to the Young Investigator Competition and only the 10 highest scoring submissions were accepted to this special competition in honor of University of Wisconsin Professor Emeritus John R. Cameron, Ph.D.

LETTER OF ELIGIBILITY

As a finalist of the competition, you are now required to submit a letter of eligibility from your sponsor verifying that you meet the criteria below and identifying the institution at which the research was conducted. The letter must be submitted on the official letterhead from your institution.

Criteria:

At the time of abstract submission, candidates for the Young Investigator Symposium must be a graduate student OR within one year post-graduation, and if post-graduate, candidates must be in a medical physics residency program or a medical physics related postdoctoral position.

The letter can be emailed, mailed or faxed to the attention of Laurie Madden, Programs Manager at:

AAPM
1631 Prince St
Alexandria, VA 22314
Fax: 571-298-1301
laurie@aapm.org

If at this time you are not able to participate as a finalist in the competition, please respond to this message immediately.

LENGTH OF PRESENTATION:

12 minutes (10 minute pre-recorded presentation + a 2 minute live question and answer period with the speaker present). Please plan your presentation to strictly adhere to the time allotted.

The top 3 Winners will be announced at the Virtual Awards Ceremony to be held during the Virtual Annual Meeting on Tuesday, July 14th at 5:30 pm Eastern Daylight Time.

PRESENTATION DIGITAL CAPTURE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

As part of the 2020 Joint AAPM|COMP Virtual Meeting, a digital archive of presentations given during the meeting, including streaming audio of the speaker, slides of the presentation, and a photograph of the speaker, will be available on-demand to meeting registrants for 6 weeks following the meeting end date.

Please review the Presentation Digital Capture Acknowledgement on the Author homepage. Your response is required by May 18.

PRESENTER INFORMATION/PRESENTATION PREPARATION GUIDELINES:

To assist with the preparation of your presentation, please review the information posted at: Joint AAPM | COMP Virtual Meeting - Presenter Information.

VIRTUAL MEETING PROGRAM AND REGISTRATION MATERIALS:

The virtual meeting program will be posted on the 2020 Joint AAPM|COMP Meeting homepage the week of June 1. The program will also be published in the June issue of the Medical Physics journal. Abstracts will be published in the online version only of Medical Physics.

Online registration will be available on the virtual meeting homepage along with general meeting information on Wednesday, May 13.

We look forward to the publication of your science. If you are unable to fulfill the requirements of your disposition, please contact the AAPM Programs Manager by May 18, 2020, to remove your abstract from the meeting program.
